NEIL SCHWAB
... Heads HI-Y

HI-Y ELECTS N. SCHWAB PRESIDENT

Neil Schwab, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Schwab, 1508 Acacia avenue, was elected president of the Torrance High School HI-Y Club for the school year 1950-51 at a meeting of the group last Friday evening.

The meeting, final for the year, was a dinner affair with Mrs. I. O. Kasten, mother of Irwin Kasten, immediate past president of the club, doing the serving.

Advisor of the YMCA high school club is Jack Hoy. Meeting once each week during the school year the club aims "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character."

Realty Firm Inaugurates Auto Tours

Personally conducted tours of the Greater Torrance area will be inaugurated this Sunday by three offices of the Alter Realty Company, according to Jerry Alter, president.

The tours, an hour-and-a-half swing around Torrance's 19 square miles, will leave at 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. from Torrance, Lomita, and Walteria, according to Dick Miller who is in charge of the tours.

Purpose of the free tours is to show prospective residents some of the many new homes, lots, and acreages available in Torrance.

Anyone wishing to take the tour is urged to contact any one of the following persons at the locations indicated:

Jack Pettit, 1529 Pacific Coast highway, Lomita.

"Chris" Sorenson, 3603 Pacific Coast highway, Walteria.

Dick Miller, 1651 Cravens avenue, Torrance.

Legion Post Plans Series Of Dances

In an attempt to build a program of entertainment and recreation for American Legion members and their friends during the summer months, Robert Fernley, chairman of the entertainment committee, announced this week that the first in a series of summer dances will be presented at the post hall on Border avenue on Saturday, June 17.

Dance contests will be a feature attraction of the parties to be held every three weeks. In previous parties thus far this year, the dance contests have drawn more than 300 contestants.

BOB REID NAMED HEAD OF METHODIST MEN AT MONTHLY DINNER MEET

R. T. "Bob" Reid was unanimously elected president of Methodist Men at their regular monthly dinner meeting on May 31. The leadership shown by his active interest in the welfare of the Church will add new stimulus to this progressive group.

Also unanimously elected were John Almond and Robert House, vice presidents; Jim Rose, secretary, and Robert Porter, treasurer.

The rousing applause accorded them was evidence of the spirit of cooperation and teamwork the officers may expect during the coming year, observers declared.
